The Columbia Valley Land and Investment Co.

Have determined by resolution of their Board of Trustees to dispose of ALL the balance of their property and wind up the Company's business AT ONCE, and will sell without reserve at AUCTION

Five Hundred Town Lots!

In the Railroad Addition to the town of Pomeroy.

This will present a Rare Opportunity for Speculation, as the prospects for the future growth of Pomeroy are better than that of any other town in Washington Territory. This Addition being in a valley one-third of a mile wide, the hills rising on each side to the height of over 300 feet, is geographically so situated that the city cannot extend in any other direction. The lots comprise with but few exceptions all the available ground for RESIDENCES or BUSINESS PURPOSES, and in the future extension of Pomeroy, its growth can only be in the direction of the above Railroad Addition, the passenger, freight depot and warehouses being located in the center of these Lots, which are all in the city limits. Pomeroy is the county seat of Garfield County, and already is a thriving town of over 1000 population, with fine schools, three weekly newspapers, and is the Terminus of the Starbuck & Pomeroy Railroad, a branch line of the O. R. & N., and there is more fertile agricultural land tributary to it than any other town in Oregon or Washington Territory, and there is but little doubt of its doubling its population within the next two years.

Terms of Sale:

Cash for all sales of $25 or under. For all over that amount 10 per cent. discount for cash; or one-third (1-3) cash, balance in 6 and 12 months, with notes, bearing 12 per cent. interest, secured by mortgage.

This Auction Sale will commence at 10 o'clock A. M., on Monday, October 4th, 1886, and will continue until all the Lots are sold.

Serious Danger

Threatens every man, woman or child living in a region of country where fever and ague is prevalent, since the germs of malarial disease are inhaled from the air and are swallowed from the water of such a region. Medicinal safeguard is absolutely necessary to nullify this danger. As a means of fortifying and acclimating the system so as to be able to resist the malarial poison, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is incomparably the best and the most popular. Irregularities of the stomach, liver and bowels encourage malaria; but these are speedily rectified by the Bitters. The functions of digestion and secretion are assisted by its use, and a vigorous as well as regular condition of the system promoted by it. Constitution and physique are thus defended against the inroads of malaria by this matchless preventive, which is also a certain and thorough remedy in the worst cases of intermittent and remittent fevers.

Steps Taken to Suppress Pleuro-Pneumonia at Chicago.

THE SITUATION AT CHARLESTON

Last Day of the Triennial Conclave—Bartholomew, the Charter Oak Defaulter, in Canada—The Orange Crop Ruined.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—At a conference between members of the live stock commission and officials of the stock yards company this morning, Mr. Pierson said to the stock yard representatives that the commissioners had decided to kill all cattle now in the Phœnix and Shufeldt's distilleries, about 2000 head; that on post mortem examination all diseased cattle would be cremated and all healthy cattle sold to the highest bidder.

President Sherman of the stock yards company said a million dollars would be lost to the packing interest of Chicago if a report went out to the world that beef from infected distilleries, whether healthy or not, was being shipped from Chicago.

Mr. Pierson then informed the gentlemen that the state only had $[illegible] with which to compensate owners of healthy cattle, and if non-healthy beef was utilized the state would be at an expense of at least double that amount. He then suggested to the stock yards men that they buy up healthy beef and help the commissioners out of their dilemma. He said the commission would, of course, exhaust the appropriation already in hand. No decisive answer to the proposition was given.

ANOTHER CONFERENCE.

The commissioners this afternoon held a conference with Dr. Salmon, U. S. veterinarian, Dr. Casewell, state veterinarian, and veterinarians from Wisconsin, Michigan and Iowa. Dr. Salmon said that he had been in telegraphic communication with U. S. Commissioner Coleman, of the department of agriculture, who had authorized the continuance of the quarantine at the expense of the national government until it should be decided what disposition to make of the carcasses. Dr. Salmon said he was authorized to double the quarantine force now existing, which cost about $57 per day. The quarantine force would then consist of twenty-nine deputies, two during the day and four during the night at each of the four distilleries, and five at the Harney farm. The committee decided to detail an extra force.

Excepting 400 head of cattle owned by the Fairbank Canning company, of which Nelson Morris is president, a majority of the 3000 animals under quarantine belong to men depending on their two or three cows for a living. When news of the extent of the quarantine reached them to-night, they were thoroughly aroused. They say the state will be obliged to destroy all beef as only healthy cattle will be appraised, and that the quarantine extension is a conspiracy to spread this disease as far as possible before slaughter takes place.

DR. SALMON'S REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Commissioner Coleman of the department of agriculture, who sent Dr. Salmon, of the bureau of animal industry, to Chicago to ascertain if the disease that has broken out there is pleuro-pneumonia, received by telegram the following report: "There is no doubt that the cattle disease is pleuro-pneumonia. The authorities find much difficulty in dealing with it. Seventy-five thousand dollars worth of cattle are to be slaughtered, and less than $30,000 is available in the state appropriation. The department cannot pay for diseased cattle here, because the state law requires their slaughter, without compensation. I have offered, for the department, to meet the expenses of slaughter, excepting the compensation of owners, disinfecting, and also to make an inspection of the infected district. Do you approve of what I have done? The state committee is now arranging details for the slaughter."

The commissioner sent the following reply: "Telegram received and your action approved. You are also authorized to take any steps deemed necessary and expedient to still further confirm your diagnosis and fully establish that the disease is pleuro-pneumonia."

THE SITUATION AT CHARLESTON.

A Statement by the Relief Committee—More Aid Needed for the Homeless.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 24.—Letters having been received from all parts of the country asking whether the period of great distress in Charleston has not passed, a statement is made by the relief committee that through the generosity of their fellow countrymen they feel themselves in a position to furnish sustenance and temporary shelter to all who need it; but at the same time the committee estimate that relief funds at command or in prospect fall short of money needed to put in a habitable condition the homes of persons who are unable to repair their buildings without public aid. The government engineers have inspected 600 buildings out of 7000 in the city, and estimate the damage to those inspected at $3,290,000. Their inspection, however, covers most of the costliest structures.

The relief committee, in assisting needy householders to make their residences habitable, will deal first with those whose homes are small, the object being to make as many roofs as possible tight, foundations secure and chimneys safe before cold weather comes. The homes of widows and orphans and other helpless persons will have paramount consideration. No loss of any person owning more than a house will be considered at this time. The intention also is to disallow claims for plastering, as being indispensable to reasonable safety and comfort.

The subsistence committee have supplied nearly all the persons requiring provisions, and the number of rations issued to-day was the smallest since the commissariat was established. The force of clerks and working force is being gradually reduced.

To-day was very quiet. No shocks were felt here, and there was only a slight tremor at Summerville. Business is active and merchants are hopeful.

THE KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

Last Day of the Grand Encampment—Washington the Next Meeting Place.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 24.—So far as public business is concerned the programme for the twenty-third triennial conclave of Knights Templar was finished yesterday. Closing receptions were held last night, the most notable being that of Golden Gate of San Francisco. This morning various headquarters are being stripped of their decorations, and every departing train is crowded with departing knights and their friends. Thousands have already gone but other thousands still remain. These latter spent the day in viewing the sights of the city and enjoying steamboat excursions on the river. To-night local commanderies and their remaining visitors will hold receptions. A few minor street parades will be given, and the city will be illuminated.

THE GRAND ENCAMPMENT.

The Knights Templar grand encampment was slow in meeting this morning. At the beginning of the session the most eminent grand master made the following appointments: Sir Knight Rev. John G. Webster of New York, very eminent grand prelate; Sir Knight John P. Parsons of Missouri, very eminent grand standard bearer; Sir Knight Nicholas Van Slyck of Rhode Island, very eminent grand sword bearer; Sir Knight Nicholas P. Buckle of Indiana, very eminent grand warden; Sir Knight Edwin F. Warren of Nebraska, very eminent grand chaplain of the guard.

The installing of officers and the report of the committee on time and place for holding the next grand encampment were postponed. The report of the committee on grievances and appeals was discussed, but definite action was deferred. The report on ritual was taken up, and was under discussion at 1:30, when recess was taken until 3 o'clock.

The triennial communication of the order of Eastern Star has held three sessions, at which formal reports of officers were made and committees appointed. This morning department reports were received and referred, and adjournment taken till afternoon.

CLOSE OF BUSINESS.

The afternoon session of the grand encampment brought the business of the body to a close. On reassembling after dinner discussion of the ritual, which had consumed most of the morning session, was resumed and occupied the attention of the encampment a large share of the afternoon. The celebrated "Michigan question" was decided, the action of the state commandery being almost unanimously sustained. After the ritual was disposed of the appointive officers, whose selection was announced to-day in these dispatches, were installed, and the matter of time and place of the next triennial conclave came up. Washington, Louisville and Cincinnati were leading applicants for the honor of entertaining the Knights, and after considerable deliberation Washington was fixed on as the place, and the second week in October, 1889, as the time. This was the last business before the encampment, and at its conclusion final adjournment was taken.

THE HARTFORD EMBEZZLEMENT.

Letters Received from Bartholomew, who is in Montreal.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 24.—George M. Bartholomew was heard from to-day in Montreal. Several letters were received from him. As far as can be learned the missives contained no facts of public interest. Friends of Bartholomew here say that he was under great pressure at the time of his flight, and he would have died had he stayed here. He made the utmost exertions to protect those whose funds he had taken. As the matter is studied over it is found that he gave the Charter Oak Life Insurance company $150,000 in bonds which he said were worth 70 cents on the dollar, and gave the Holyoke Water Power company security for all the money he had received from it, and also secured other creditors as far as he could, where he had wrongfully applied funds, although the securities were not really negotiable.

The condition of the Union manufacturing company has not yet been fully ascertained, but it is [illegible] large part of their face value. Most of these have his endorsement. It is known to his friends that he only took $500 with him.

Isaac Breloks, of Forrington, who has been appointed receiver of the Charter Oak life insurance company, gave bonds in $250,000 to-day and qualified.

BARTHOLOMEW TRIED TO SWINDLE FIELD.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Concerning defaulter Bartholomew of Hartford Cyrus W. Field said yesterday: "My wife and Mrs. Bartholomew are cousins. Monday when I went to Hartford, at his request, to inquire into his financial condition he told me he was temporarily embarrassed, but with a little assistance could pull through all right. I expressed a willingness to loan him from $10,000 to $20,000 if he could prove he was solvent and could return the money in reasonable time. Personal inquiry into his affairs, however, failed to convince me of this, as a cursory examination of his assets sufficed to show that he was hopelessly involved."

EASTERN NEWS ITEMS.

SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE OF ODD FELLOWS.

BOSTON, Sept. 24.—The sovereign grand lodge of Odd Fellows continued its session at 9 o'clock this morning, Grand Sire Garry in the chair. Jurisdictions were called for new business.

The committee on state of the order reported that it would be inexpedient to establish a home for orphans of Odd Fellows under the sovereign grand lodge. The report was adopted.

The judiciary committee approved the decision of the grand sire that lodges under immediate jurisdiction must meet once a week. This rule holds good in all cases where different rules have not been prescribed by state grand lodges.

Columbus, Ohio, was chosen as the next place of holding the sovereign grand lodge.

The following resolution from the committee on appeals was adopted:

Resolved, That in all appeals to this grand lodge it shall be required that appellants send with their papers a certified copy of the constitution and by-laws of the subordinate lodge or encampment involved in the appeal.

Past Grand Sire Stokes offered a resolution that a committee of three be appointed to act in conjunction with the elective grand officers, to settle all matters pertaining to the removal of the headquarters of the sovereign grand lodge and sale of property. This was referred to the committee on removal. The grand lodge then went into secret session, after which it adjourned.

LOUISIANA ORANGE CROP RUINED.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—A Times' New Orleans, La., special says: The Louisiana orange crop is usually marketed about this time. Reports from Calcasieu, St. Bernard, St. Mary, Cameron, La Fourche, and other parishes in which oranges are principally grown, report the crop a complete failure this year. It usually averages from thirty to fifty million a year, but will not be one million this year, in consequence of the severe freeze of last winter. News is uniformly bad from every portion of the state. In some places where 500 barrels were obtained last year, barely a barrel will be secured. The freeze of last winter did terrible damage, killing limbs and requiring the cutting off of so much dead wood as to almost destroy the trees. There is absolutely no crop, none of the trees bearing properly. Large plantations are as badly injured as the small ones. The worst of the matter is that the trees are so badly injured that it will take nine years propitious weather before the crop will be a full one again. It will be but little improved next year, and only a partial production the year following. If nothing happens to prevent, the third year should see a fair crop. A large proportion of the Louisiana crop last year was shipped north, but there is not enough for home consumption, and New Orleans will be compelled to depend on California and Florida.

THE BELL TELEPHONE CASE.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 24.—Argument in the American Bell telephone company case, in the U. S. circuit court, terminated this morning. At the close of the argument the court said it wished all the papers to be laid before it, in order that a deliberate review of the whole case could be made. A decision may, therefore, not be reached for several weeks. Ex-Solicitor-General Goode, at the close of the case, asked the court if it would now hear the argument upon the demurrer of the sub-companies, which the government counsel was prepared to offer. The court said it would not hear the demurrer until after this question was disposed of, but would hear it at the December term of court at Columbus.

STORM IN TEXAS.

GALVESTON, Sept. 24.—There was an equinoctial gale here last night, and winds reached the velocity of a gale at points on the lower coast. Galveston seems to have been on the outer side of the storm circuit, as the highest velocity here was thirty-two miles at 3 o'clock this morning, while at Indianola it recorded fifty miles. As morning advanced the wind decreased. Torrents of rain fell during the night, and is still pouring. The storm has resulted in no damage here.

M. P.'S COMING TO THIS COAST.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—A dispatch from London says: Thirty members of the house of commons will take berths in steamers departing for New York this week. A visit to California is on the programme.

SLIGHT SHOCK AT SUMMERVILLE.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 24.—There was a slight shock at Summerville last evening, and possibly two during the night. There was none in Charleston.

HENRY GEORGE NOMINATED.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Henry George was nominated almost unanimously for mayor by the trade and labor organizations last night.

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS.

MEDICAL AND SURGICAL SOCIETIES.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Secretaries of medical and surgical societies of the United States met at the Army medical museum to-day, and effected temporary organization by the election of Dr. Busey of this city as chairman, and Dr. J. Ewing Mears as secretary. The work was all preliminary, as the subject in hand was to consider the advisability of arranging for regular meetings in Washington of various medical societies. Dr. Pepper of Philadelphia submitted a proposition that it was desirable to form a congress of societies represented. It was decided to form such congress, and it was agreed to constitute an executive committee of one representative from each society favoring the project, and that this executive committee should decide the time for meetings in Washington. Also that at these regular meetings the principal order of business should be an address by the president and the presentation of an original essay for discussion. It was definitely decided that all meetings shall be held in Washington, but the remaining details, except the address by the president and essays, will be left to the executive committee. Each representative will report back to his society and if it approves then they will elect a member of the executive committee.

REFUSE TO CARRY OUT THE TREATY.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Consul-General Williams, at Havana, in reply to an inquiry from the secretary of state, confirms the report that the Madrid government has sustained the Cuban authorities in their refusal to carry out the treaty arranged, as it is understood in this country, making mutual concessions to American and Spanish vessels trading between Cuba and this country. This will probably lead to correspondence between this government and the Spanish authorities, to ascertain what the latter means, and ultimately to the annulment of the arrangements or the conclusion of a new one.

THE PRESIDENT.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—The president was kept pretty busy to-day, receiving visitors and attending to current business. After noon a reception for general visitors was attended by about fifty persons, mostly ladies.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

CHARGES AGAINST PRISON AUTHORITIES.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 24.—Developments concerning the mismanagement of the Ohio penitentiary intensify indignation against the guilty persons. Testimony now being placed before the grand jury by convicts and witnesses who are not criminals is astounding. It is alleged that men who were imprisoned for burglary were taken out at night by employes of the prison, regaled at restaurants and instigated to do clever burglaries, the proceeds of which were divided up between the convict and the keeper. These stories are sworn to by inmates, who give definite statements as to time and place. Frequent thefts in Columbus about one year ago are thus explained.

Testimony now going before the grand jury shows that the greatest thieves in Ohio were not convicts, but their keepers. A bank cashier who was bookkeeper in a state shop was careful to keep a list of articles stolen, with the names of the thieves. His record is before the grand jury, as are also the diaries of several other prisoners who took diligent note of all the crime going on.

ARRESTED FOR EMBEZZLEMENT.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 24.—Charles Doll, member of the late board of public works, and Charles T. Blackburn, its clerk, were arrested this noon upon a charge of embezzling $15,000 of the city's funds. There are rumors of other arrests to be made soon. These charges are based upon discoveries made by expert accountants, who are examining the books of the board of public works.

HANGED FOR A TERRIBLE CRIME.

MACON, Ga., Sept. 24.—Frank S. Humphreys was hanged to-day at Milledgeville for the murder and rape of two ladies—Carrie Raines and Ella Humphreys, his kinswoman—on March 4. He confessed his guilt to the sheriff last night, but made no statement on the scaffold.

The Greatest Walk

Known was the walk to the head of the contestants for public favor by the "Hanan" shoe. To be as good as the average contents some, but to lead, far in the van, the procession of shoemakers, only "Hanan" & Son. [illegible], Young & Co. agents for Portland.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

Conflicting Rumors about the Proposed New Treaty.

GREAT BRITAIN'S IRISH POLICY.

Mysterious Tragedy in England—Spain Demands the Expulsion of Zorilla from France—An Ultimatum Rejected.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The World's Ottawa dispatch says: Difficulties which have been so long pending between the United States and Canada in reference to reciprocal trade relations, and latterly those which have risen out of the fishery dispute, are now in a fair way to be settled to the satisfaction of both countries. A treaty which is to bring about this state of affairs has been drawn up between the United States and the imperial government and submitted to the Canadian government for approval before going into effect.

A DENIAL.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—A Washington special to the Post says: The rumored treaty with Canada which comes in an Ottawa dispatch of the 23d has no foundation in fact, so far as the alleged facts are stated to have been submitted to President Cleveland and Secretary Bayard and agreed upon. No negotiations for any treaty with Great Britain on the part of the United States have been entered on. The convention was laid before the senate at the last session, and was left unacted on. It is within the limits of possibility, Assistant Secretary of State Porter says, that the project for the suggested convention amendatory of the treaty of 1818 may have been forwarded by the British colonial office to the Canadian ministry for suggestions, but no credence is attached to statements purporting to give the text of its provisions.

FISHERMEN IN ARMS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—A Gloucester special to the Post says: The terms of the reported new reciprocity treaty caused the utmost indignation among the fishing industry of Gloucester, and democrats and republicans alike unite in condemning it. In conversation with a reporter one of the largest dealers said: "The new treaty means no such thing as reciprocity in fish. If such a treaty should be ratified the fishing interest of the country would be ruined and transferred to Canada. This is what Gloucester fishermen have been fighting against. Reciprocity in fish means the gradual decadence of the fishery business in the United States."

"All the fishermen here say that they do not want to fish inside the three-mile limit, but they do want trading privileges. "We might just as well annex Canada and be done with it," they say, "if we are to have free fish."

A DENIAL FROM OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, Sept. 24.—Inquiries in official circles fail to elicit any information relative to the statement that the Canadian government is considering a draft of a new treaty between England and the United States. Foster, minister of marine and fisheries, denies the truth of the report, claiming he has not received any intelligence regarding the new treaty.

PRESS COMMENT.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—The Commercial says, editorially, of the reported new treaty with Canada: "So far as we may judge from the summary now published, the treaty is calculated to remove existing evils and benefit both parties to the transaction. It gives seafaring men of New England coasting privileges they desire and demand. It removes internal dissensions which threaten to disintegrate Canada as a confederacy, and it will greatly help trade on both sides of the border by removing protective duties in certain lines of articles. In fact, by this treaty there is virtually as free trade between the United States and Canada as now exists, under the constitution, among states and territories of the Union. Commercially the treaty, if ratified, will make Canada essentially a part of the United States."

ENGLAND.

THE GOVERNMENT TO FIGHT THE NATIONAL LEAGUE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—T. P. O'Connor cables to the Star from London: The National league, it is now positively stated, will be proclaimed in November next. The proclamation will doubtless be followed promptly by the arrest of many prominent Parnellite members of parliament, nationalist officials and other men of influence with the Irish on the popular side. The government will, if possible, do this without sanction of special legislation, after the manner of "Buckshot" Forster in 1881. The Irish are prepared to fight. There is no intention of sitting down and tamely submitting to everything the government may think proper to do. The nationalist orders of to-day will profit by the mistakes of the past, and be guided by experience acquired in former struggles. They have adopted a general plan of action to meet the intended procedure of the government. It is a measure of boldness and prudence, the object being to keep carefully within constitutional bounds. Following is the plan: Tenants will abandon proclaimed league meetings. Instead of gathering in defiance of castle authority, as members of the league, they will meet by estates. Even the officials of Dublin castle will hardly object to tenants on estates meeting together to talk over their mutual interests. This method of procedure will violate no law, and will be perfectly constitutional. Landlords offering a reasonable abatement of rent will be met in a spirit of fair compromise. Those alone will be resisted who ask impossible rents.

A MYSTERIOUS TRAGEDY.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—A sensation has been produced by the announcement of the discovery of a mysterious tragedy in a car compartment. The discovery was made last evening, but was not made public until to-day. When the 6 o'clock train from the city on the underground railway arrived at Queensford station last evening, the newsboy noticed blood dripping from a compartment of a first-class carriage. He raised an alarm, and a gentleman was found lying on the floor. He was unconscious, and blood was flowing freely from his head. It was found that on his forehead was a deep wound four inches in length. This evidently had been made with an instrument sharp and heavy. The scalp was not only cut clear through, but the skull was crushed in and brains were protruding. On his person were found a gold watch and chain and some rings. None had been disturbed. He had very little money. The man was at once conveyed to a hospital. He is still unconscious, and his condition is precarious. It has been learned that his name is Moritz A. Fisher, and that he is head of the house of M. A. Fisher & Co., foreign agents, of No. 35 Cater lane, E. C. The police are as yet unable to gain a clue to the murderous attack, or to the identity of his assailants.

LONDON A MENACE TO ENGLAND.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—Lord Rosebery, speaking at Glasgow, said he thought no greater calamity could befall the country than the continual draining of rural life by absorption of the best labor into the great cities, especially London. He feared that when the enormous mass of people in the metropolis should become unmanageable the authorities would find it too late to deal with the problem.

WILL PROTECT WITNESSES.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—Sir Michael Hicks Beach has written to Belfast a letter that the government will support the royal commission in any measures designed to free official witnesses from apprehension concerning consequences if they give evidence truthfully, freely and candidly.

SALISBURY GOES TO FRANCE.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—Salisbury has gone to France.

"CANADA FOR CANADIANS."

PARIS, Sept. 24.—The National, commenting on the remarkable display of products of Indian industry at the colonial exhibition in London asks why, of £20,000,000 worth of goods annually exported by Canada, £8,000,000 go to England and only an insignificant portion to France. The article concludes: Though French feeling is still vigorous in Canada, the business connection of that country with England is too close to be suddenly snapped, but when France is ready to welcome Canadian commerce to such an extent as will compensate for the loss of her English custom will begin an evolution in that country so dear to France, and which is now to be "Canada for Canadians."

ZORILLA'S STATEMENT.

PARIS, Sept. 24.—Senor Zorilla, leader of the Spanish revolutionists, in an interview published in Figaro, states that last Sunday's uprising in Spain was premature, and declares that in a revolt, which will take place at the proper time, many of the generals in the Spanish army will support the revolutionists.

A DEMAND FROM SPAIN.

PARIS, Sept. 24.—Spain has demanded of France the expulsion of Ruiz Zorilla from French territory. The French cabinet to-day discussed the demand and separated without being able to agree as to the proper answer to make to Spain. It was resolved to submit the matter to President Grevy.

CANADA.

TIRED OF EVASION.

OTTAWA, Sept. 24.—Owners of a number of Canadian fishing boats belonging to Charlotte county, N. B., but lately entered by their owners at Calais, Me., and paying duty to the United States customs for the purpose of enabling them to engage in fisheries and carry fish into the United States free of duty as products of American fisheries, have become disappointed at the outcome of the venture and are now petitioning the government to have their boats again recognized as Canadian bottoms.

DISASTER IN ST. JOHN BAY.

ST. JOHN, N. F., Sept. 24.—A disaster occurred in the bay of St. John this morning. The British schooner Summerset collided with the schooner Mary Ann, cutting her in two. There were thirty seven persons aboard, four of whom were drowned.

THE ADAMS CASE.

HALIFAX, Sept. 24.—Chief Justice McDonald to-day gave his decision on the motion made by Mr. Meagher, counsel for the United States, to have evidence for the defense in the schooner Adams case taken before a commissioner in the United States. The chief justice's decision is that the captain of the vessel must come to Halifax to be examined, but that the crew may give their evidence before a commissioner in Boston.

THE SPROULE CASE.

OTTAWA, Ont., Sept. 24.—Counsel for prisoner Sproule, who has been sentenced to be hanged on October 1, is here, and is making another effort to save him from the gallows on the strength of a report that he has become insane.

FIRE AT TORONTO.

TORONTO, Sept. 24.—The building occupied by Davidson & Hay, wholesale grocers and liquor dealers, burned this morning. The stock, valued at $120,000 is a total loss; insured for $70,000.

GERMANY.

CLOSE OF THE CONGRESS OF SCIENTISTS.

BERLIN, Sept. 24.—The scientists' congress had its final sitting to-day. Prof. Virchow thanked the government and local authorities, and the university and two academies, for having assisted in making the congress a success and Prof. Fresenius, who was chosen first secretary of the next meeting, which will be held at Wiesbaden, thanked Prof. Virchow, on behalf of the members, for the manner in which he had conducted the labors of the convention. Prof. Hoffman, in concluding the session, proposed three cheers for Emperor William, which were enthusiastically given.

AN ELECTORAL STRUGGLE.

BERLIN, Sept. 24.—A fierce struggle is about to begin between liberals and conservatives to fill a vacancy in the reichstag, caused by the death of Herr Loewe. The National Zeitung, which has hitherto been a moderate liberal, has joined the conservative ranks, but it is generally believed that the progressists will carry the election.

DISASTROUS TRAIN COLLISION.

BERLIN, Sept. 24.—A train laden with German soldiers returning home from Strasbourg and Alsace, after having completed three years' service, collided with another near the Berlin depot to-day. Three of the soldiers were killed and twenty wounded. The collision was caused by misplacing a switch.

COAL MINE DISASTER.

BERLIN, Sept. 24.—A dispatch from Essen announces that an explosion of fire damp occurred in a coal pit near Schalke to-day, and that forty-five persons were killed and sixteen injured, eight of the latter being in a precarious condition.

AUSTRIA.

MONUMENT TO ADMIRAL TEGETHOFF.

VIENNA, Sept. 24.—A column erected to the memory of Admiral Baron Von Tegethoff, at the entrance to the Prater, was unveiled to-day by Emperor Francis Joseph, in the presence of an enormous assemblage. The imperial family were all present, accompanied by most of the nobility. All the cabinet ministers and Vienna municipal officers, court nobles, resident diplomats and delegates from different branches of the Austrian army and navy, and a number of officers who served under Admiral Tegethoff, were present; also, several deputations from foreign countries, besides a vast concourse of people. In his ceremonial address the emperor declared the column was dedicated as a memorial of the greatness of Admiral Tegethoff and the navy, and he said he hoped remembrance of Admiral Tegethoff would always inspire them to deeds of bravery.

EIGHT MEN PERISH.

VIENNA, Sept. 24.—Lightning to-day struck and set fire to the Italian bark Midola, while she was being laden with benzine at Fiume. Eight men perished in the flames.

THE EASTERN TROUBLE.

TO SUCCEED SIR EDWARD THORNTON.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 24.—It has been finally settled that Sir Wm. White, now British minister at Bucharest, will succeed Sir Edward Thornton as British ambassador here. Sir Wm. White is considered a strong diplomat, well versed in eastern affairs, and able to counteract Russian intrigues with the porte.

THE ANTI-RUSSIAN FEELING INCREASING.

SOFIA, Sept. 24.—It is stated that the Russian ultimatum, of which Gen. Kaulbars is bearer, demands the immediate raising of the state of siege in Bulgaria, liberation of all political prisoners and indefinite postponement of elections for members of the national assembly. However, there are no signs of flinching on the part of the regency. On the contrary, the anti-Russian feeling increases daily.

EXCUSE FOR RUSSIAN INTERFERENCE.

LONDON, Sept. 24.—The Bulgarian government has been informed that the hostile demonstration at the Russian agency in Sofia against Gen. Kaulbars will furnish an excuse for Russian interference.

PORTLAND, SATURDAY, SEPT 25, 1886.

NOT AN IDEAL SENATOR

The Springfield Republican is as glad that Senator Edmunds is to be re-elected as it was that Senator Morrill and Senator Hoar were re-elected two years ago, and it hopes Senator Dawes and Senator Hawley will also be re-elected. The Republican remarks

None of these men is perhaps an ideal senator but yet from the half dozen we can form a conception of what constitutes the senatorial ideal in New England A striking incidental characteristic of the group is that not one of them is a wealthy man. A single California or Nevada senator could buy out the whole lot.

It is true that Stanford or Fair could buy out the whole lot, nevertheless Senators Edmunds and Morrill are both wealthy men Fair and Stanford are among the men of exceptionally vast fortunes in the world, but because neither Edmunds nor Morrill is worth millions it is not accurate to say that they are not wealthy They are both among the few very wealthy men in their state. Senator Edmunds is estimated to be worth at least [illegible], and Senator Morrill is worth upwards of half a million In what respect is Edmunds an ideal senator? We observe certain Eastern newspapers prophesy that while Edmunds is to be elected in spite of Blaine's opposition, the defeat of the oleomargarine senator, Warner Miller will be accomplished by the anti Blaine men in New York In what respect is Warner Miller more or less an oleomargarine statesman than Edmunds? In a published letter to a Vermont farmer Edmunds declared himself strongly "in favor of congress taxing bogus butter, so as to give makers of real butter their fair rights," and added that he needed no urging "to look after the interests of our farmers." Senator Edmunds knows perfectly well that the oleomargarine act was a fundamentally vicious measure of special and class legislation, which permits one domestic industry to use the power of the federal government to tax another domestic industry out of existence, or at least pay tribute to its rival Mr. Edmunds knows that if one class of animal fat makers may use the power of the government to bruise the business of another class of animal fat makers the producers of any other article of domestic consumption have an equal right to invoke the aid of congress against their business competitors, Of the right to regulate the sale of food to prevent fraud there can be no question, but there is a right and a wrong way to reach this end. In England parliament does not select a single article like oleomargarine but extends the principle of protection against adulteration and fraud in food to all articles of table consumption. Some years ago parliament passed an act of a simple and comprehensive nature, which required that all manufactured articles of food should be labeled with a statement of all their ingredients, fraud, upon detection, or failure being punished with extreme severity If coffee contained chicory, the seller must distinctly make that fact known. The proportion of corn starch employed in tempering mustard, and incidentally expanding its bulk, must be stated And so through the long list of comestibles and condiments the law enforced perfect candor between buyer and seller The result is that not only England gets honest food by honest, impartial legislation, but she has a monopoly in the condiment trade of the world, because we distrust the purity of our own domestic compounds An adulteration act is a good thing, for it simply seeks to protect the public against fraud in a lawful way, but an oleomargarine tax discriminates between two domestic industries, and taxes one to put a dividend into the pocket of the other In England, under the bills pending to regulate the sale of oleomargarine, the dairymen object to the imitation of the color of butter, and under such an act the American dairymen, who largely use a butter dye, would be offenders as much as the oleomargarine men whom they persuaded congress to tax. The English dairymen object to the use of the word "butterine," because there is usually no butter in it, and demand that the true name of the "stuff," which they say is "margarine" shall be branded on every package in which it is sold, but do not ask to be protected by the imposition of a tax upon the imitation article, nor do they pretend that it is unwholesome.

Mr Edmunds has made three trips to Europe Once he was summoned thither as a legal expert. He has considerable acquaintance with eminent English lawyers, and is familiar with the English method of dealing with the oleomargarine question. Why didn't he rise in his place in the senate and recite the English practice and protest against the erecting of such a vicious precedent by congress as the oleomargarine bill? Heretofore Edmunds has always protested against all class legislation, and has been quoted as a great lawyer, famous for his unflinching fidelity to sound law, but in this instance he left his old lofty stand and stooped to bring his services to the notice of the class seeking this special legislation by public letters. So in the matter of Beck's bill, providing that a member of congress shall not be the attorney of a land grant railroad, over which congress has jurisdiction, and with which it is compelled to have conflicts upon questions of great public importance, in voting vast sums of money and important principles of public policy, Senator Edmunds reversed his old time record and helped kill by suffocation this excellent enactment Mr Beck said that a senator represents his state, the people of his state, and the interests of the people of all the states that therefore he ought not at the same time to represent the interests of great railroad corporations that come to congress for legislation that when these corporations oppose the legislation demanded by the people no senator can properly represent two forces in conflict he cannot take a fee from both parties in a great suit, and the retainer of the railroad corporation is sometimes three times [illegible] Mr Beck fairly said that if [illegible] has such a connection he ought to surrender it before he comes to congress and [illegible] the part of a judge guarding the interests of the people of the United States and [illegible] the railroads to have other attorneys [illegible] attention to the [illegible] interest Mr Edmunds answered the [illegible] argument of Mr Beck in a spirit of [illegible] contempt, [illegible] said "This hits Evarts the Oregon senators and myself" So in his controversy with the president, Edmunds in his unscrupulous effort to put the president unfairly in the wrong, wrecked his own case. He acted all through the late session of congress like a man who played partisan clear up to the gates of demagogy from fear he might lose his seat in the senate, if he did not stimulate the hidebound republicans of Vermont into a feeling of fresh admiration for his capacity to worry the democratic bulldog in the White house In short Senator Edmunds has acted more like a politician during the last year and less like a statesman and a sound lawyer than ever before in his life He has receded from his old hostility to special legislation he has put on the uniform of a corporation attorney in the senate, and has made a needless, weak and purely partisan fight with the president to make Vermont rise up and sing "Clap your hands for Daddie, Oh!" It would seem this was the record not of an ideal senator, but rather of an ideal political partisan and demagogue—a character that Mr Edmunds once scorned or at least pretended to scorn to personate. Moreover, in a recent letter, published in an Omaha paper, Edmunds says, in substance, that he could not support Blaine in 1884 because the republican party made "an absolutely improper selection," that he voted with the party in the election, but he could not consistently give Blaine his support on the stump It is hard, of course, for a plain man (who is not a lawyer), to understand how if Blaine was good enough to vote for why he was too wicked to talk for. A man absolutely unfit to talk for is a man unfit to vote for. Such a record as that of Edmunds is good enough for a mere political demagogue, but it is not the record that justifies the title of "ideal senator"

The friends of high license in New York state intend to present a bill to the next legislature, of which the following is a summary A broad distinction between distilled and fermented liquors, the license for the former being $1000, for the latter $100, disqualifying convicts from holding licenses the disqualification of premises for one year on conviction or revocation of license; the publication of names and addresses of applicants at least one week before a license is granted, prohibiting sale of liquor to minors, under penalty of revocation of license; prohibiting sale of liquor on board of excursion boats and in tenement houses, requiring licensees to keep the interior of their premises open to view Care has been taken that no provision of this bill shall infringe upon or affect the civil damage act or the local option law

The reason of "hard times," which set in three years ago all over the country, seems ended at last In its financial article of the 18th inst. the New York Times has the following.

If there is any cloud anywhere in the financial sky it manages very thoroughly to hide itself There has been no hint of it the last week Trade is booming merchants are crowded by customers and manufacturers are driven to fill orders booked far ahead every man who wants to work has it and every dollar not locked up is showing an earning power The farmers of the West and South have crops that [illegible] for the first time in years the railroads in all their territory have never been called upon to handle such a vast traffic. Illustrations of the increased earnings of the railroads of the country were given last week The same state of things continues with [illegible] difference that the percentage of the increase is [illegible] than then The result is unprecedented The prosperity betokened reaches in every direction.

This certainly is cheerful enough In our own part of the country certainly there was never a brighter prospect Business is better than ever before, the country is nearly out of debt and productive industries are organizing all over the state Every man who wants employment in Oregon can get it at good wages—in that, times are good again

We are told that efforts are being made in various parts of the state to work up a sentiment for a constitutional convention There are, unquestionably, many causes for dissatisfaction with the present constitution, which was made in and for the days of small things but it may be doubted if at this time a better and safer constitution could be made Under the old one the state is prosperous, while administration of the public offices is good and comparatively cheap The air is full of undigested theories respecting labor, capital, taxation and railroads, besides the usual "isms," and we question, seriously, if the public mind is in the temper to make a constitution as good, on the whole, as the existing one.

Mitchell's home organ reproduces this from the San Francisco Bulletin and finding it so republished, evidently by authority, we may take it to be true

United States Senator Mitchell of Oregon is the only man in the United States who can boast at present of a baby son and a baby grandson within four days

This would seem to suggest that the senator has been indulging in another of his peculiar matrimonial adventures

The Union Pacific is rapidly working into good financial condition Its report for the first six months of the year shows earnings of $11,606,088 07 expenses, $8,444,765 81 Surplus earnings, $3,161,322 26. Surplus, less United States requirements, $789,327 08, deficit last year, $427,121 52 On August 24 the last note of the company outstanding was paid.

THE COURTS

The trial of the case of John Bigne vs. S A [illegible] was continued with in Judge Shattuck's court yesterday At 11 o'clock the evidence was all in and at 5 P M the case was submitted to the jury. The opening argument in behalf of the plaintiff was made by C. E. S Wood, who concluded his speech on the adjournment of the court for the noon session On the court reconvening E. N Steeves addressed the jury taking up some two hours' time. Henry Ach followed with an able argument in behalf of Bigne. About 4 o'clock Judge Shattuck charged the jury and after a short deliberation they came in with a verdict in favor of Bigne for $6729 50 the amount sued for.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

HUNTING IN FINE STYLE.—A hunting party arrived here Thursday evening over the Northern Pacific from Worcester, Mass., in the excursion car David Garrick, which was here a few weeks since with a party of G. A. R. excursionists. They started on the 6th inst., and have already enjoyed some shooting in Minnesota and Dakota. Their car and the accompanying baggage car, which carries their luggage, dogs, guns, etc., are decorated with trophies in the shape of wings and tails of ducks, geese, prairie chickens, snipe and antelope horns. The party leave for the Sound this morning, and will visit Victoria before they return. They will stop at Hope, in the Pend d'Oreille region, on their way home, and hunt for big game, returning over the Northern Pacific. They are out for a sixty days' trip, and have had a pleasant time thus far. The party consists of Hon. Max B. Richardson, Oswego, N. Y.; Dr. and Mrs. L. Corcoran, and Master J. Brewer Corcoran, Springfield, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Moore, Hartford, Conn.; W. H. Hutchinson, Lynn, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Allen, Grafton, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. F. Kinney, Miss Edith Kinney, A. W. Gifford, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Marble of Worcester, Mass. Mr. Marble, whose name is familiar to all sportsmen, has been out on similar excursions for the past dozen years, and quite a number of this party have been with him on previous "annual shooting trips." There is some style about going hunting in this manner. They can chase the wild antelope over the plain and shoot the huge buffalo right from the car train, and when the game is scarce they need not go to bed supperless, as the spacious lockers, refrigerators and pantry of the car contain supplies for an army.

TWO ADDITIONAL MAIL CARRIERS.—Postmaster Roby has for the past six months been using his best endeavors to have the free delivery system in this city extended, and the department has at last granted him two more carriers. The city will at once be redistricted and divided into ten districts instead of eight, as formerly. The new arrangement will go into force October 1. Mr. Roby intends to furnish the business part of the city with three deliveries of mail daily. In the thickly settled residence portion of the city there will be two deliveries daily. There will be a complete delivery daily including all within the city limits after the arrival of the Eastern mail, and as there are now two mounted carriers it is probable that there will be two deliveries daily over the greater part of the city. Mr. Roby has been riding about the city for several days getting a personal knowledge of the limits of the present districts, with a view to changing them to the new order proposed, and when all is settled and in working order it is not unlikely that the deliveries in the business part of the city may be increased to four per day, and that there will be two deliveries all over the remainder of the city. Jefferson C. Crandall and Philip F. Dwyer, who have been acting as substitutes for some time, have been promoted to fill the places of the two additional carriers.

THE FAT STOCK SHOW.—The second annual exhibit of the domestic and fat stock show will be held in this city commencing Wednesday, October 13, and closing Thursday, October 21. Enough entries have already been made to take up more than half the present room, and intending exhibitors should send in applications for space at once. At a recent meeting the directors were authorized to increase the capital stock from $3000 to $5000, and the additional $2000 will be subscribed in a few days. The funds thus raised will be used in additional buildings, which are a necessity. Though the capacity of the pavilion will be double last year's, it is doubtful whether all the exhibits will find accommodation. To avoid the appearance of favoritism, the directors will follow the rule, "First come, first served;" hence the necessity of early applications for space. Among the attractions offered for little folks there will be four Shetland mares, each with a colt, and two Shetland horses, exhibited by W. C. Myers of Jackson county.

INCORPORATIONS.—Articles of incorporation of the Presbyterian alliance of Portland, were filed yesterday with the county clerk. Objects of the corporation to promote unity and efficiency in Christian work among the members of the different Presbyterian churches of Portland and vicinity, and to help one another in supporting mission stations, churches, chapels and schools. Principal place of business Portland. Incorporators, D. O. Ghormley, E. Quackenbush and Thomas N. Strong. Supplemental articles of incorporation of the Oregon Transfer company were filed in the office of the county clerk by Thomas N. Strong, Henry Failing, H. W. Corbett, Geo. H. Flanders and John Kiernan, in pursuance of a meeting of the directors and stockholders held for that purpose. Articles 3 and 5 are changed so as to read as follows: "The amount of the capital stock shall be $100,000 and the value of each share $50."

WANTS HIS CHILD BACK.—F. M. Manning and wife were divorced in the state circuit court October 31, 1878, and the care and custody of the minor child, then 4 years of age, was awarded to Mrs. Manning, who removed to Marion county and married Martin Elliott. Manning also re-married, and now lives in East Portland. Recently his former wife died, and Elliott applied for and was appointed guardian of Minnie Dell, the child above mentioned, by the county court of Marion county. Since the death of his first wife Manning has become imbued with a desire for his child, and accordingly has petitioned the state circuit court to modify the decree of divorce so that he may obtain possession of the girl, who is now 12 years old, from Elliott. Manning avers that he is well able to care for her and provide her with a good home, and that the separation between them was brought about by domestic infelicity.

PECULIAR SUIT.—Joel W. Eaton has commenced suit in the state circuit court against C. A. Plummer. Plaintiff avers that during the month of February, 1880, at West Chazey, Clinton county, New York, Alice G. Wells furnished Hattie Plummer at her request $100, and that between the 10th day of December, 1885, and the 2d day of April, 1886, Mrs. A. G. H. Wood, furnished Hattie E. Plummer with board, etc., of the value of $85, and that plaintiff furnished Hattie E. Plummer with railroad tickets valued at $100 April 1, 1886. All the claims are now in the hands of the plaintiff, the first two coming into his possession by assignment; wherefore he prays judgment for $285. Plummer, it seems, sent his wife East, and then sued her for a divorce. On learning it she returned and obtained a divorce from him.

FOR FIVE YEARS.—Judge Stearns yesterday sentenced William Peek to five years in the penitentiary, being three years on the indictment on which he was tried and found guilty by the jury of stealing a revolver, and one year each on the two indictments to which he pleaded guilty. The articles Peek was indicted for stealing from William Beck & Sons are not by any means all that Peek got away with, the firm having a long list against him. Peek since his arrival in Portland "sailed high," in other words, lived beyond his means. He wanted to be a hale fellow well met whether his salary permitted of it or not, and according to the statements made around police headquarters, stole hunting coats, leggings, gun-cleaners, etc., simply to give away. Peek was interviewed by his former employer yesterday and still maintained his innocence.

CURIOUS BIRD.—Off one of the tea ships which lately arrived here Mr. Leightner, of the Merchants' Exchange saloon, secured a singular bird, called the Japanese tumbler. It has a habit of jumping from its perch, turning a somersault and coming down on the perch all standing, and this trick it will perform dozens of times in succession, till beholders deem the bird demented. It is considerably larger than a canary, and of rather pretty plumage, but not much in the musical line. Like nearly all of the Japanese who have visited this section, with the exception of Ko Ko, Katisha and Pooh Bah, its strong suit is its acrobatic performance.

TO REVOKE SHOOTING PRIVILEGE.—The case of H. T. Bingham vs. Charles Salene was argued before Judge Stearns yesterday. The question involved is the right of Bingham to shoot on Salene's farm, situate at the mouth of the Willamette slough, in Columbia county. Salene deeded Bingham this privilege during the year 1878 without consideration. Some dispute has arisen since. The deed is perpetual and for all time, and Salene claims he thought the privilege he gave was from time to time and he could revoke it when he pleased. Anyway, he wants to have it set aside. Judge Stearns hasn't yet passed on the case.

I. O. G. T. LODGE.—Rising Star lodge, I. O. G. T., was organized at Linkville September 19, by the grand lecturer, Prof. Wm. Crowhurst. The thirty-four charter members chose the following officers: W. A. Wright, L. D.; J. S. Orr, C. T.; Miss Stella Moore, R. H. S.; Miss Mollie Brooks, L. H. S.; Mrs. W. S. Moore, V. T.; W. E. Greene, secretary; Miss Hattie E. Brooks, A. S.; Miss E. V. Sears, F. S.; Mrs. W. E. Greene, treasurer; Rev. S. Sayre, chaplain; H. Galarman, marshal; Mrs. W. C. Wright, D. M.; O. N. Gordon, guard; J. R. C. Williams, sentinel.

SEATCO COAL.—The Northwestern Coal company have forty men at work opening up a new lead on their property near Seatco. They have a tunnel in 500 feet and are taking coal from a vein seven feet in thickness. The company consists of S. Coulter, J. B. David and F. R. Brown of Olympia. They are opening up the mine in good shape and will have coal in the market in a short time. The coal is lignite and is used for steam or domestic purposes and is considered by the owners of the mine the best coal in the territory.

ANTELOPE.—Two antelope were displayed at A. H. Johnson's stall at New Market yesterday morning. They attracted considerable attention, being the first ever seen in this market. There are herds of antelope on the plains of southeastern Oregon, but none of them ever find their way to Portland. Those above mentioned were killed in Dakota, and came in over the Northern. The skins will be mounted by Capt. Douglas for H. T. Hudson.

RECEPTION AND SOCIABLE.—The young ladies of Grace church will give a reception and sociable at Grace chapel, corner of Eleventh and Taylor streets, on Friday evening, October 1. The members of the church and congregation will be glad to receive their friends on that occasion. A fine programme, literary and musical, will be presented. Further notice will be given later.

MECHANICS' FAIR.—The office of the superintendent of the Mechanics' fair will be moved to the pavilion next Monday, the 27th, after which date goods will be received and exhibitors will be able to put their stands in order. Articles of fancy work for the ladies' department may be presented at the pavilion from September 27 to October 5 for action by the committee.

RAGS FOR THE PAPER MILL.—Thompson & Co. have accumulated large quantities of rags, rope, etc., at their storehouse on G street, and ship weekly to the mills at La Camas. The traffic in this class of material is growing in the state since the new mill commenced operations, though quantities of the material are brought from California.

NEW PASTOR.—The newly appointed pastor of the Taylor street M. E. church, Rev. W. M. Mullenix, D. D., late of the Towne street M. E. church of Columbus, Ohio, will arrive from the East with his family on this morning's train. Dr. Mullenix will occupy the pulpit of Taylor street church to-morrow, both morning and evening.

BLEW OUT HIS BRAINS.

A Girl Declined his Suit, and he had Nothing Farther to Live for.

Wm. Milan, an employe of the Oregon Transfer company, committed suicide yesterday morning by shooting himself in the head with a pistol. He occupied a room in the barn of the transfer company at the corner of Fifth and G streets, in company with W. F. Aiken and T. J. Connor, and all retired about 9 o'clock Thursday evening. Yesterday morning Aiken and Connor arose at 4:30 as usual, to attend to their duties, leaving Milan asleep. At 6:30 as he had not yet come down, John Hughes was sent to call him, and found him lying on his back on his bed, dead. A pistol lay by his side and just above his right temple was a wound where a bullet had pierced his brain. He had evidently arisen after his roommates had gone down stairs, taken his pistol and shot himself, the noise made by the horses preventing his friends from hearing the pistol shot.

Last summer he expressed a desire to get out of town for a time and Mr. Kernan, president of the company, sent him out on his farm in Yamhill county. While there he shot himself in the breast, as he said at the time, accidentally, while shooting rats. Mr. Kiernan had him brought in and placed in a hospital here, and he finally recovered. While in the hospital here he told Mr. Kiernan that he had shot himself with suicidal intent. He had been paying attention to a respectable young lady here who had rejected him, and he did not care for living. Since his recovery he has often complained of having the "blues," and said he would sooner be dead than alive, and his rash act created no great surprise among those most intimate with him. He was a man of excellent habits, and was much esteemed by his employers. An inquest was held by Coroner De Lin yesterday morning. Dr. A. C. Panton examined the remains, and stated that the bullet had entered the brain, and death must have been instantaneous. After hearing the testimony in the matter the jury returned a verdict of suicide. Milan was a native of Illinois and 30 years of age. He owned some property in Irving's and Tibbetts' additions to East Portland and a note for some $200. His friends have been telegraphed to as to the disposition of the remains, but no answer has been received yet.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING.

Carter's Hill Wants a Separate Schoolhouse—Marquam's Hill Out in the Cold.

The school board met in regular session last night, President Wasserman in the chair.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From Annie E. Knox, for a position as teacher.

Clerk Struble reported that James Bennett was entitled to a rebate of $4 50 in his assessment for taxes on account of clerical error; amount ordered refunded.

From S. P. Lee and twenty-seven others, residents of Carter's addition, as follows: Your humble petitioners present a census report of the number of children living in Carter's addition and request that the board proceed at its earliest convenience to secure ground and erect thereon a schoolhouse for the accommodation of the children of this suburb, eighty-three in number. In addition to the above there are four or five families whom we have not been able to interview, which will no doubt increase the number of children to ninety or ninety-five.

Dr. Busing, who was present, explained that some of the children attend Park and others Harrison schools, also that a building for school purposes could be rented for the winter. The children were principally small children, and it was an inconvenience for them to go a long distance during the winter.

Superintendent Crawford said it occurred to him after conversation had a year ago, that if a block of ground could be obtained, a temporary building for a primary or ungraded school could be erected and the other children could continue as at present.

On motion of Director Thompson, a committee was appointed to investigate the matter and obtain the names of children between the ages of 6 and 21 years, and see if they could obtain a suitable building that could be fitted up for school purposes for the winter; carried, and Messrs. Thompson and Crawford appointed as such committee.

BILLS ORDERED PAID.

Telephone Co.	$60 00
Oregon Furniture Manufacturing Co.	6 00
George H. Himes	95 50

From the residents of Marquam's hill, asking that their children be admitted as free scholars as it would be a hardship to send them to the next nearest school, three miles distant. There are twenty-four children on the hill, and, according to a legal opinion expressed, they are out of the district in accordance with a legislative act that makes city limits and school district all one. The people now on Marquam's hill are not in any school district, and now no longer pay taxes in this one.

Director Dodd said they wanted to bridge over until the next meeting of the legislature. The condition was a hard one, and the board ought to do something, "but how? Some could pay tuition and others couldn't."

Wilson said he thought it a waste of time to discuss it any further, as the board had no power to grant them any relief.

Directors Dodd and Durham were of a like opinion. Durham said it was a hardship, but not one of their creation.

The petitioners suggested that the Portland city homestead be added to the city. Laid on the table because the board has no jurisdiction in the matter.

Director Wilson reported he had visited all the schools except the High school, and never saw so much excellence in the schools at this early period. One thing he found fault with was writing as taught, and thought it could hardly be corrected unless a writing teacher was employed. A little discussion occurred over this, the prevailing opinion being that perhaps not quite enough attention was paid to teaching the art. A general discussion followed on school matters generally.

Wilson next reported that in the Harrison street building the windows and blinds were extremely filthy. It was explained as a reason for this that carpenters were at work on the building and occasioned this, and put the janitor back with his work.

Wilson moved that the fire drill in the schools, which had recently been abandoned, be again taken up. It was so ordered.

Prof. Crawford reported that the street railway companies would not issue any half-fare tickets or passes to teachers, but they would have to buy their tickets at $4 and $4 50 a hundred, the same as other people.

On motion, the janitor at the High school was allowed $15 a month to hire assistance and ordered to return a voucher each month showing how and where he expended the money. Adjourned.

BRIEF MENTION.

John Magruson, from Pendleton, who has been in the county jail for the past thirty days for selling liquor to Indians, was yesterday discharged from custody.

William Bray was taken to the penitentiary yesterday by deputy sheriff Allie Brown. Bray goes up for five years for the larceny of $310 from J. C. Donnelly.

The session of the police court yesterday lasted but a few minutes. There were but a few drunks to dispose of. Next came Johnny Mooney, whose case was again continued.

The various committees have reported $2270 raised for the benefit of the Charleston sufferers, with a few remote precincts to hear from. To-day the committee will telegraph $2500 to Charleston.

Judge R. W. Emmons returned yesterday from a hunting trip in the Chehalis country. Early Thursday morning he and his companion espied five deer in a bunch and they succeeded in killing four of the number.

Two boys, Frank Sawyer and Frank Murphy, aged 10 years, were brought from Albina and lodged in the county jail, to serve ten days each for stealing a boat. The boys belong to Ellensburg, from which point they tramped to Albina.

In the matter of Frank Frommelt and Alexander Lampit against J. Jackson Siegriest, praying for the reconveyance of 118 acres of land on the mountain road, referee Ames filed his report and testimony, in which the prayer is denied and the findings are in favor of the defendant. The case has been hanging fire for the past two years.

Ten days ago James Wilson, a sailor, was arrested for going into Marion Lovey's room, in the Portland lodging house, and stealing a watch, and also with rifling Capt. Ball's pantaloons pockets and abstracting therefrom $1 20. Wilson waived examination to appear before the grand jury. Since he signed articles to ship on the bark Carrier Dove, and the authorities have consented to his release, and Wilson will once more be allowed to plough the briny deep.

BEFORE HIS ELECTION.

ST. VINCENT'S HOSPITAL, Sept. 23.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

When was Gen. Grant's Philadelphia property donated to him, before or after his election to the presidency?

"What is Woman's Worth?"

Asked a fair damsel of a crusty old bachelor. He did not know, so she said: "W. O. man" (double you, O man). But a woman feels worth little if disease has invaded her system and is daily sapping her strength. For all female weaknesses Dr. R. V. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription" stands unrivaled. It cures the complaint and builds up the system. Send 10 cents in stamps for pamphlet to World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main street, Buffalo, N. Y.

GRAND BALL.

Given by Resolute assembly, K. of L., at Merchant hall, entrance on Third st., Saturday evening, Sept. 25. Doors open at 7 P. M.; grand march at 8 P. M. Tickets admitting gentleman and ladies, 50 cents. A good time promised to all.

Phrenology.

Prof. Morris will lecture at Shute's hall, Stephens's addition, this evening. Topic—"Love, Courtship and Marriage." Ladies and gentlemen phrenologically matched at close of lecture. Admission, 10 cents.

Grand instrumental concert at the Profession, 69 First street, to-night.

A Vancouver Hotel Keeper Tarred and Feathered.

THE DAYTON, W. T., ARSON CASE.

Fire at Port Townsend—The Usual Budget of San Francisco Items—Mutiny at San Quentin—Accidental Death.

VICTORIA, Sept. 22.—At New Westminster the magistrate stated that he and the constable had been offered bribes by a keeper of a Chinese brothel summoned to appear for trial. He gave the keeper the full extent of the law.

Mrs. Richard Carr, a former resident of San Francisco, died yesterday.

Minnie Hauk appears here next week.

An extraordinary occurrence is reported from Vancouver to a hotel keeper named Collier, lately from Arizona. He was found in an equivocal position with his step-daughter. His wife tried to get him arrested and failed. Last night forty citizens rushed Collier off to a selected part of town, when they tarred and feathered and rode him on a rail. At last accounts he was taking a coal oil bath to separate the tar from the skin.

Sir Edward Watkin, member of the British parliament and president of the Grand Trunk railway of Canada, is here. He says Esquimalt is one of the finest harbors in the world, and that it will be made a second Gibraltar by the British government.

In coming to the wharf at Nanaimo, on Wednesday three men from the steamship Queen of the Pacific were lowered in a boat to take a line to the wharf. They drifted on to the propeller, and the screw striking the boat, smashed it to pieces. One man was drowned and the other two were picked up by a boat that was lowered. The name of the drowned man was Cummings.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

THE DAYTON ARSON CASE.

DAYTON, Sept. 24.—In the case of the Territory of Washington vs. Charles F. McClary, for arson, Frank Taylor, who was in the employ of McClary as barkeeper testified: "He told me that he had been put to $400 costs by S. M. Waite, and he had a proposition to make. He wanted me to burn up Waite's property. I consented. He said there would be another to help. McClary got the fuse at Oppenheimer & Smith's hardware store, and he and I went into McClary's cellar and arranged the fuse with coal oil and an old sack. We got the coal oil in two bottles, broke one near the mill, saturated a sill with the other and set it on fire. We ran to Nellie Fuller's house when the fire bell rang. I then went to Portland, but came back again and went to work for McClary till arrested."

S. M. Waite testified: "The chop mill was the property of Waite & Poatcher, and was valued at $10,000. I was home in bed when the alarm sounded. I dressed and went to the planing mill. I found coal oil and fuse under the mill."

J. D. Williams, an employe in the mill, saw McClary and Hutchings about the mill sometime before the fire in the chop mill.

FIRE AT PORT TOWNSEND.

PORT TOWNSEND, Sept. 24.—A fire broke out this morning in the lower part of town in some Chinese quarters. An alarm was given at once, and the fire brigade arrived promptly. Water was turned on from three hydrants, and most of the property was saved. Five wooden buildings valued at about $4000 were burned or torn down to save other property. The new water works were used to-day for the first time, and proved very effective. Most of the furniture and fixtures in the buildings burned were destroyed. The iron foundry and Franklyn hotel were in flames many times, but were saved after exertion. The foundry was damaged in about $300. There is no insurance on any of the property.

CALIFORNIA.

MUTINY AT SAN QUENTIN.

SAN QUENTIN, Sept. 24.—About 150 convicts mutinied yesterday morning, and when ordered to go to work refused to do so. The prompt action of the officers in charge, who immediately gave orders to all the guards to bring their guns to bear upon the mutineers, had the effect of cowering them and preventing an outbreak, which might have resulted in the escape of a large number. The ringleaders were placed in solitary confinement. In the afternoon two of the convicts got into a fight in the jute mill, and upon the guards attempting to separate them, some thirty-five or forty convicts attacked them. Help soon arrived and several shots were fired over the heads of the mob, which had the effect of quieting them. Six of them were locked in a dungeon and ordered to be flogged.

A DRUGGIST'S STATEMENT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—Dr. Ernest Pring, keeper of a drug store at the corner of Tenth and Folsom streets, who prescribed for two little children of E. L. Miller on Thursday last, and has since been charged by the father with having caused the death of one of them, declares that the remedy which he used was entirely regular, and would have been harmless even if it had been taken in excessive doses. It consisted of subcarbonate of bismuth and bicarbonate of soda, paregoric and peppermint water. Dr. Pring prescribed for the infants over the counter, as he often does. Dr. Pring says that he is a regular physician, being a graduate of the University of Willamette, Oregon.

SUTRO'S GIFT OF TREES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—The 15,000 seedling pine trees which were donated by Adolph Sutro to the public school children were yesterday taken to the store rooms of the school department and to-day were received by the janitors and taken to the different schools and distributed. The school children were all supplied with flower pots or some other receptacle in which to place the tiny trees for their [illegible]. The shoots are from five to twelve inches long. The board of education has designated Friday immediately following Thanksgiving day for the children to plant the trees.

ACCIDENTAL DEATH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 24.—News was received here by telephone from Haywards, Alameda county, early this morning of a fatal accident that befell Charles W. Bryant, a young attorney, well known in this city. A few days ago Mr. Bryant went out of town on a week's vacation. Late last night his body was found. Shot had entered the right side. Both barrels were empty, and it is thought he had fired off one charge, and was in the act of loading the empty barrel when the other went off, as he was leaning over the muzzle.

DIPPING INTO POLITICS.

The caucus of anti-Chinese non-partisan delegates who favor political action on the part of the association has decided that a legislative ticket be placed in the field, with the ultimate object of making Patrick Reddy United States senator.

The convention was called to order at 3:30 P. M. Reports of committees on credentials, permanent organization and other business were adopted. The committee on platform asked for and were granted further time. Adjourned till 9 to-morrow morning.

THE SEAMEN'S STRIKE.

The Coast Seamen's union is out with the following card: "The public of San Francisco will please take notice that statements to the effect that members of the Coast Seamen's union have gone to work for boycotted shipowners, or have given up their strike in any particular, either in whole or in part, are false. There are 1000 men out, and they are out to stay until justice is done or till they are starved back. There are no scabs among them and will be none."

HASKELL ET AL. DENOUNCED.

At a meeting of the anti-Chinese legion Henry Weisman, who served a term in prison for being implicated in a dynamite plot about a year ago, denounced Burnett G. Haskell, C. F. McGlashan and others as being to blame for the whole matter, and said it was not Coroner O'Donnell who led him into the dynamite plot last fall. "B. G. Haskell, W. C. Owen, Pross. Martin and J. J. Martin are the ones that led me into it, and left me in the lurch when I was imprisoned."

REPAIRS TO THE OREGON.

A cofferdam is being arranged around the stern of the steamer Oregon at the Oregon Navigation company's dock to repair damages to her rudder post, which she presumably received while crossing the bar at Astoria. The Oregon arrived here from Portland, Or., yesterday, and will have to lay off for perhaps two trips to finish her repairs.

MILL PROPERTY SOLD.

The Western Mill & Lumber company's property at Port Townsend has been sold for $130,000 to W. J. Adams. The former proprietors were Daniel L. Randolph, and Turner, Kennedy & Shaw, of this city.

A FINANCIAL SUCCESS.

The amateur entertainment at Alcazar theater last night for the benefit of the Silver-street kindergarten and children's hospital netted about $5000.

TO CARRY LUMBER TO AUSTRALIA.

The American ship C. B. Kenney has been chartered by J. F. Chapman & Co. to load a cargo of Puget Sound lumber for Australia.

SAWMILL BURNED.

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 24.—The Centennial sawmill, on Bean creek, about seven miles from this city, was totally consumed by fire, with 50,000 feet of lumber and all the tools and machinery, last night. The mill was owned by Grober & Co. and employed about thirty hands. The fire is supposed to be incendiary. The loss is about $7000, no insurance.

SACRAMENTO'S CONTRIBUTION.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 24.—The fund for aid of the Charleston sufferers has been closed. It amounts to $1100.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 24.—Contributions to the relief of the earthquake sufferers, to the amount of $1150, were telegraphed Charleston to-day.

INSANE.

FRESNO, Sept. 24.—D. S. Terry, Jr., nephew of Judge Terry, was committed to the insane asylum at Stockton to-day. Morphine and whisky are the supposed causes of his aberration.

STATE DISPATCHES.

FELL FROM THE SALEM BRIDGE.

SALEM, Sept. 24.—Adam Johnson, a Swede, employed on the bridge now being constructed across the river here, fell from the structure to-day, a distance of nearly seventy feet, striking a timber and lighting in about four feet of water. He sustained internal injuries from which he will probably not recover.

IDAHO.

DROWNED WHILE FISHING.

HOPE, Sept. 24.—J. Linabury, proprietor of the Highland house, was drowned while fishing this afternoon alone in a boat. A man in another boat near by observed the boat upturned and rowed to Linabury's boat, but saw nothing of the body. The body has not yet been recovered.

NEVADA.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

CARSON, Sept. 24.—The republican state convention was called to order at 1:30 P. M. by C. C. Stevenson, chairman of the state central committee. P. A. Doyle was chosen temporary chairman, and W. Hy. Doane temporary secretary. Committees on credentials, permanent organization and order of business, and on platform and resolutions were appointed, when the convention adjourned till 3:30 P. M. There are five candidates for governor—T. B. Rickey, C. S. Stevenson, J. H. Kinkaid, Andrew Nicholls and H. C. Davis.

ALBANY NOTES.

ALBANY, Sept. 24.

Col. Van Cleve of Yaquina, is visiting friends in the city.

The Linn county board of equalization will meet September 27.

Mrs. Chas. Shaw, sister of Mrs. G. S. Royce, is visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. Dr. Maston has gone to Portland where she will remain until after the Mechanics' fair.

Mr. L. Senders will leave to-morrow for Prineville, going across the mountains in a buggy.

Mrs. Motley, nee Claypool, is visiting in the city at the home of her aunt, Mrs. James Elkins.

Next Saturday afternoon and evening Mrs. Reese will lecture at the opera house in this city.

Prof. J. C. Wyckoff, who taught at the collegiate institute last winter, is now located in Cincinnati.

The county court ordered a new roof for the court house and workmen are now engaged in putting it on.

Wm. Schooling of Harrisburg, had several fingers badly cut the other day, while using a wood saw.

Another evidence of Albany's increasing trade is the addition of another express wagon by the delivery company.

Mrs. Deckard returned home yesterday from an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. G. Evens, at North Yakima, W. T.

Rev. Mr. Wooley, of Eugene City, passed through the city yesterday, en route to Lebanon, where he will permanently locate.

The next regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at the residence of Mrs. R. M. Robertson on Tuesday evening, Sept. 28.

Joseph Webber, Jr., of Portland, purchased yesterday of Judge Strahan the old Hurd property on Second street, paying for the same $1000.

Miss Mattie Foster has returned home from a visit of several months with her sister at Fort Stevens, and will remain in the city this winter.

Five teams left Albany yesterday for the summit of the Cascades, each loaded with blasting powder and other materials used by the workmen there.

Last Wednesday Mr. B. Huston, working on one of the trucks, received a very severe fall while assisting in binding on a load of flax, which broke his nose and otherwise injured his face.

Last Saturday Mr. H. Hulburt brought to the county clerk's office a coyote scalp, for which he received a bounty of $5. He also received an additional bounty of $20 given by the neighboring farmers.

The O. P. railroad company has purchased land about half way between here and Corvallis, where a station will be established, and will commence work at once upon the depot. The place will be known as Waldon.

Last Sunday evening Frank Dickens, living near Scio, was accidentally shot in the foot by a young man who was walking behind him with a shot gun, and who accidentally stumbled and fell, causing the gun to be discharged.

Leo Sternberg, a little 2-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sternberg, died very suddenly at their home Wednesday forenoon. Tuesday night he went to bed apparently well, but Wednesday morning was taken with spasms and soon died.

Last Tuesday a slashing across the river opposite the city was set on fire. The fire got beyond the control of the workmen, however, and before it could be checked burned considerable fencing, 250 cords of fir wood and a house belonging to John Manny.

Wm. Lally met with a severe accident yesterday while cutting trees. His ax glanced from a limb and struck his foot near the instep, almost severing it. An artery was cut, and he came near bleeding to death before the flow of blood was staunched.

The committee appointed to raise the sum of $12,000 to insure the building of the machine shops here are meeting with very good success, over $8500 being now subscribed. Word has been received from headquarters to hurry the matter along as rapidly as possible, as it was desired to commence the works this fall.

In business Albany is crowding right along. Since the railroad boom has struck the city there has been started, or will be as soon as the buildings are gotten in order, the following: One hotel, three stores, four grocery stores, four millinery and dress making shops, one butcher shop, one barber shop, one saloon, one or two restaurants, two physicians and one gent's furnishing house.

Mr. Wm. Hogue, manager of the O. P. R. R., was in the city yesterday, having just returned from San Francisco. While here he visited the bridge, and was well pleased with the work being done. Work has been delayed by the lack of lumber, which could not be obtained; other arrangements have now been made, however, and work will progress much more rapidly. The track on the main line has been laid to the trestle, and the workmen are now putting in two switches, one for ballast and the other for freight and passengers. Freight from the incoming steamer will be received here by rail and re-shipped on the O. & C. R. R. without delay.

THE EAST SIDE.

REAL ESTATE LOOKING UP.

It will be gratifying to East Portlanders to learn that there has been more inquiry for real estate in and near this city for the past month than at any time for many months previous. Several sales have already been made by private parties and through agents and others are being negotiated. The demand for houses for rent is greater than has been at any time for a year past and the probabilities are that by the time winter sets in there will be few, if any, vacant houses in the city.

THE ELEVATED ROADWAYS AGAIN.

The attention of the city authorities is again called to the unsafe condition of some of the elevated streets in this city, and more especially Fourth street between J and L streets, where the planking of the roadway is nearly worn through and rotten. Two different times last week horses happened to step on this and rotten plank and broke through with one foot. Yesterday the same thing occurred in three different places, and it would scarcely surprise any one if a team, wagon and driver should be found in the slough underneath some of these fine mornings. The matter should be attended to at once.

NOTES.

Miss Ida Roberts of Astoria, formerly of this city, is spending a short time visiting with Mrs. E. C. Powell.

Many of our citizens are anxious to know when the O. R. & N. railroad company are going to commence building the depot they promised on this side the river, or if they have abandoned the project.

E. Davidson of Portland paid into Justice Bullock's court the sum of $21 as fine and costs yesterday, for the privilege of bringing a sick horse over to this side and abandoning him on the commons without food and water, so that he died in the street.

Mr. George Peaslee, senior member of the firm of Peaslee Bros. of this city, left on the steamer last night for San Francisco. He expects to be absent about four weeks. His visit to California is one of business and pleasure combined, but the most important will be a visit to San Jose, where on the 12th day of October, 1886, he will be married to the beautiful and accomplished Miss M. Willey Allen of that city. The best wishes of scores of friends in this city will go with him.

SCIO NOTES.

SCIO, Sept. 22.

Scio has street lamps.

The narrow gauge trains arrive at West Scio every evening at 5:45.

Mr. M. C. Gill, of the firm of Smith & Gill, dealers in hardware, etc., is quite sick.

Polk Thomas has opened a hotel in the Chapman building. We again have two hotels.

Prof. Rand has been engaged as principal of the public schools here, and Mrs. Dr. Dodd as assistant.

Clay Myers, son of David Myers of this place, leaves for Portland this morning to attend business college.

Miss Lou Stipp is expected back from California, where she went for her health. She is much worse than before leaving, and her friends are very anxious about her.

Mr. E. J. Daley, deputy sheriff of Linn county, has a child in his family nearly two years of age that weighs only ten pounds. No cause has been found for this freak in nature.

Several teams passed here on their way to work on the O. P. R. R. extension this side of Albany. Rumor has it that the road will be graded to a junction with the narrow gauge this fall. This road will be within two miles of Scio, but a switch will likely be extended into the town.

The bridge across Thomas creek at this place is being repaired. For the space of at least one week communication between the two portions of town will be cut off. West Scio is two miles from Scio. Hacks meet all trains, and the switch runs to the edge of town. Thirty-five men are now at work repairing same.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION.

The third annual convention of the Young Men's Christian association of the Pacific Northwest convened in Astoria on last Monday evening. The delegates on their arrival in Astoria were met by members of the Astoria delegation and escorted to their hall, which was elegantly decorated for the occasion, where the ladies of the association had provided a sumptuous collation. In the evening a welcome meeting was held, Mr. E. C. Holden, president of the last convention, in the chair. The singing was led by William Wadhams of Portland. An address of welcome on part of the association was made by the chairman. Hon. Judge Bowlby welcomed the delegates in behalf of the citizens, and Rev. E. W. Garner, LL. D., in behalf of the clergy. Responses were made in behalf of the association by Mr. E. C. Frost, chairman of the executive committee; Mr. C. F. Seal, of the Portland association on behalf of the citizens, and Rev. C. J. Larsen of Tacoma on behalf of the clergy. Major Hardie of Selma, Ala., Mr. H. J. McCoy of San Francisco and Mr. G. S. Mason were then introduced and briefly responded. Temporary committees were then appointed and the meeting adjourned until 9 o'clock the next morning.

Medical Testimony.

100 WEST 49TH STREET,
NEW YORK, June 6, 1883.

Having in the course of a large practice extensively used Allcock's Porous Plasters in the various diseases and conditions of the lungs and pleura, and always with success, I recommend their use in that most aggravating disease, Summer Catarrh, or Hay Fever; strips of Plaster applied over the throat and chest will afford great relief from the choking tickling in the throat, wheezing, shortness of breath, and pains in the chest.

R. McCORMICK, M. D.

COMMERCIAL.

FRIDAY, Sept. 24.

Overland receipts include 60 bbls 300 cs coal oil, 2 cars wagons, 2 cs cigarettes, 344 bxs 122 butts tobacco, 50 kegs feet, 5 cs confectionery, 50 cs lard, 8 cs dry goods, 2 cs shirts, 5 cs clothing, 2 cs corsets, 3 cs hosiery, 3 cs underwear, 3 cs flannels, 1 cs neck wear, 212 cs rubbers, 50 cs boots and shoes, 1 organ, 4 kegs nails, 96 bxs stamped ware, 72 pumps, 13 cs handles, 40 bbls 3 cs glassware, 6 cs 2 bbls lanterns, 10 bdls sheet iron.

The Hawaiian government is about to float a loan in London for $2,000,000, the bonds to be redeemable in twenty years, and bear 6 per cent. interest.

The business failures occurring throughout the country during the week ended 17th, as reported to the mercantile agencies, number for the United States 152, and for Canada 33, or a total of 185, as compared with a total of 178 last week and 190 the week previous. The casualties in the Pacific states and in Canada are still above the average. In the other sections of the country they are light.

PRODUCE RECEIPTS—Past 24 hours: 7900 ctls wheat, 1210 bbls flour, 474 ctls bran, 714 ctls millstuff, 476 lbs wool, 1466 lbs hides, 40 cs eggs, 467 bxs fruit, 2 cs butter, 175 sheep. Also 22,095 ctls wheat, 250 bbls flour, 300 ctls barley, 21,410 lbs wool, 95 bxs fruit, 15 cattle from the eastern section.

FREIGHTS—The River Ganges, 642 tons, arrived under prior charter to C. Cæsar & Co. An inactive market is to be reported.

WHEAT—Foreign markets inactive but cargoes are not weaker. Beerbohm reports a sale of Oregon prompt shipment at 34s 9d, a figure that appears low for valley in iron ship but such a sale would be quite probable as the request now is. Our market wears a weak front and it is thought $1 47½ and $1 25 will soon buy plenty.

OATS—Market in good feeling because of advices. There is no business of moment being done.

EGGS—Quote 20c.

POTATOES—Choice Garnets in favor for shipment but there is little doing.

HOP CROPS AND MARKETS.

Bradstreet's, September 18: Picking is now progressing in all the hop-producing countries, and while it is still too early to give actual figures as to the production, enough is known to form the basis for an approximately accurate estimate. The crop in New York state is even less than we anticipated, and will probably not aggregate more than about 40,000 bales. Of this a large proportion is moldy and discolored. The Pacific coast crop fulfills its promise as to quality, but estimates as to quantity have now come down to 40,000 bales. As to whether there is reason for this reduction we cannot yet vouch.

Reports have recently been rife that red mold was prevalent in the English gardens, but latest advices go to show that the trouble has been exaggerated. That the disease had set in strongly in part of the Weald and Mid Kent districts there is no doubt, but the Kentish Observer of September 2 says: "It will be a wonderfully big crop right through the country, ever after allowing a certain percentage for the damage done by mold." It is, however, doubtful if the proportion of choice hops will be as large as was expected. The crop is variously estimated at from 600,000 to 700,000 cwt. The surplus left over from last year is considerable, but most of it is simply rubbish, and will receive little or no attention unless much higher prices prevail.

The weather in Germany has been very good for some weeks, and the crop is consequently materially improved. In quality it is all that could be desired, and the yield will exceed anticipations. The influence of the improved prospects in Germany has been conspicuously shown by a fall in prices, and since the brewing trade has maintained its apathetic attitude the market is dull and weak. Opinions vary as to the reason for the brewers' indifference, some holding that it is the result of a combined movement to force prices down by holding aloof from the market. It is still early, however, for the season to be in full swing, and the samples now being shown are not sufficiently mature to induce much business. The Eastern brewers are well stocked with old state hops, and while the brewers in the West are less bountifully supplied, they buy slowly and with great caution. A good many of them have, however, taken advantage of the present lull to partially cover their requirements, as it is generally thought that prices will advance when the demand becomes more general. Choice 1886 Bohemians and Bavarians are being offered for November delivery at 37c per pound, and English hops at 35c.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Government bonds were dull and steady. Stocks were again extremely active, but unlike previous days of this week, the bulk of trading was confined to half a dozen stocks, the remainder of the list being comparatively quiet. The opening was comparatively steady, prices showing insignificant changes from final figures of last evening, which were about equally divided between gains and losses. Trading was very active during the forenoon, especially in Reading and Erie. Prices fluctuated within a comparatively narrow range, and their general drift was upward until towards 2 P. M., the lowest prices being made in the first hour and the highest prices at irregular periods. The last hour saw a material decline, in which Lackawanna was the chief sufferer. Advances are in a majority to-night, declines being for insignificant fractions, while Western Union and Jersey Central are up 1⅝ each, and Union Pacific 1¼.

Mining shares were fairly active and steady. Sales: Helena $1 65, Horn Silver $2 15, Mono $2 50, California & Virginia $3 70@2 75, Bodie $2 55, Bulwer $1 70, North Belle Isle $2 30@2 40.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

SHIPPING NOTES.

Ship Storm King, 1207 tons, well known at this port, has been sold for Boston account and will be used as a coal barge.

Simpson Bros. have bought the ship Austria, and she has entered the coast trade.

American bark Zenith, 17 days from Hong Kong, in ballast to J. N. Knowles, arrived in to-day.

Several papers have mentioned the arrival of the Russian steamer Moskwa at San Francisco, and say she was the original State of California. This is doubtless an error. Loyd's Register has the Moskwa built at Glasgow in 1879 and launched as the Kinsfauns Castle. The new State of California was built in 1878, after the first was sold on the stocks. She registers 1601 tons, whereas the Moskwa registers 2?4 tons.

The steam schooner Laguna sailed from San Francisco the 20th inst. for Tillamook.

FERN HILLS, Sept. 23.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

I wish to inform you of a matter which you will, no doubt, be pleased to place before the public through the columns of your valuable paper as it relates to more dereliction on the part of the gentleman who has the honor to be connected in a prominent way with the board of immigration.

Yes, Mr. Editor, I too have a grievance against Mr. C. B. C. I do not wish to mention names as I am a timid person and averse to giving pain, but you will readily understand who I mean.

Mr. Editor, I am a country school teacher; not wealthy, but the owner of a small farm, in which I have invested the entire earnings of my pedagogical career. On this farm I have paid taxes for several years; last year my county tax amounted to the sum of $345, besides school and road taxes, and I derive no benefit from the expenditure of these as I do not reside in the district where my farm is situated. As I understand the case, it is Mr. C. who gets the benefit of that money. Yet, here I have been trying to rent that place for two years and Mr. C. has not even sent an immigrant to look at it!

Pray, how does he occupy his time? He should be enterprising and find out where places are to rent and then rent them: that's what he is for. My place is small and heavily timbered and not much improved, but the soil is excellent. I know it must be because of the heavy growth of timber upon it.

It may be that Mr. C. has heard the damaging report circulated by the widow McBane to the effect that the place will raise nothing but timber. This is untrue; there is a fine patch of wild blackberries on the farm, and the widow's cows are always getting into my meadow, so the hay must be good. No; Mr. C. may be assured that the widow makes her assertion wholly from spite. The widow is a dangerous woman.

I hear a report to the effect that all of the immigrants coming to Oregon this year are rushed off to the Big Bend country. Where is the Big Bend country and does Mr. C. own it? This is a startling question.

Hoping that Mr. C. will not take my complaint as altogether unwarrantable, I remain truly yours,

J. BARTHOLOMEW POTTS.

P. S.—There is a house on my place—a house with a terra-cotta flue and a cellar. Owing to its being unoccupied the kitchen window has been broken, presumably by tramps. Do you think Mr. C. would have some new panes put in as it is his fault the place is not rented? J. B. P.

P. P. S.—If Mr. C. would like to buy my place he can have it on reasonable terms, and I will emigrate to the Big Bend country. I trust there are no widow McBanes there. J. B. P.

ABOUT FAIRS.

Fairs were introduced into England by Alfred the Great 1000 years ago. In 960 they were established in France. Fairs for the sale of slaves were common in Germany about the year 1000, and before our war slaves were frequently sold at fairs. In England, agricultural fairs are frequently held for special purposes. Weyhill fair, in Hampshire, which opens on October 10, has the greatest display of sheep. St. Faith's, held near Norwich on October 17, is the principal English fair for Scotch cattle. Ipswich has two large fairs, one in August for lambs, of which about 100,000 are sold, and one in September for butter and cheese. The August fair of Horncastle in Lincolnshire is one of the largest horse fairs in the world. A great cheese fair is held in April at Gloucester. The great fair of Scotland for cattle and sheep is the Falkirk. The largest fair in Ireland for the sale of cattle and sheep is held in October from the 5th to the 9th at Ballinasloe, to which about 25,000 head of cattle and 75,000 sheep, most of which are raised in Connaught, are annually brought.

The most important fair in France is that of Beaucaire, which is held from the 22d to the 28th of July. The trade of the fair week often amounts to $5,000,000. The principal fair of Italy is that of St. Mary Magdalen in Sinigalia, which is annually held in July and August and attended by traders from all parts of Central and Northern Europe, North Africa and the Levant. Among the various products of Italian industry which change hands here silk is the most important. Fairs of less consequence are held in other parts of Italy, as well as in Spain and Portugal. The famous fair of Madrid is annually held on May 15 at the hermitage of San Isidro del Campo, when the grand pilgrimage and festival of San Isidro draw crowds from all over the country. The great Hungarian fairs are held chiefly at Pesth in March, May, August and November.

The most important fairs of Germany are those of Leipsic, Frankfort-on-the-Main, Frankfort-on-the-Oder and Brunswick, those at Leipsic dating from the twelfth century and being most frequent. They are held three times every year, the first beginning the second Sunday after Easter, the second in Michaelmas week and the third on December 27 and running into the new year. The principal articles of trade carried to these fairs are furs, yarn, silk, cloth, cotton goods, ribbons, hardware, toys, china, glass, drugs, hides, leather, dyestuffs, oils, alcohol, etc.

Russia is noted for its fairs, the most elaborate of which are held in Nizhoni-Novgorod. The January fair is specially for timber and articles in wood, and takes place on the frozen river; the July fair is devoted to the sale of horses; but the Peter Paul fair, beginning August 5 and lasting until the end of September, is the great event. It embraces every known product of Asia and Europe, and exceeds in magnitude all other fairs in the world. The traders present during this season often number 200,000, and represent every race and nation. The principal articles of trade are tea, grain, cotton, wool, horse and camel hair, hides, iron, copper, jewels and fur; but every kind of manufacturing and agricultural produce is brought to this market. The sales amount to nearly $100,000,000.

The greatest fair in the East is held at Mecca during the time of the annual pilgrimage, so that the people mix up religion, business and pleasure. The average concourse amounts to about 100,000 people. The largest fair in India is held at the vernal equinox, at Hardwar, on the upper Ganges. It is also semi-religious, and 300,000 strangers are there assembled. Every twelfth year, which is accounted peculiarly holy, nearly 2,000,000 pilgrims and dealers visit the place. Elephants, tigers and other wild beasts are among the objects offered for sale. —New York Graphic.

DR. JOHN BULL'S SMITH'S TONIC SYRUP FOR THE CURE OF FEVER and AGUE Or CHILLS and FEVER, AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of KENT'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient. Use no other.

GRANT IN PEACE.

[illegible]he Great Soldier as a Presidential Candidate.

[illegible]ced into Politics by President Johnson's Course. He Refuses to Take any Active Part in the Campaign.

[Copyrighted by Gen. Adam Badeau.]

I have already shown Grant's original aver[illegible] to politics. Immediately after the close of [illegible]e war the attention of the country was turned [illegible] the great soldier as a probable candidate for [illegible]e presidency, but to him nothing could be [illegible]re disagreeable than the thought. Probably [illegible] man has ever been mentioned for the place [illegible]o was more unwilling to accept the honor. [illegible] was plain and unassuming for all his eleva[illegible] was entirely satisfied with his position at the [illegible]d of the army and gratified with his personal [illegible]pularity. He had received no training in [illegible]litics, and had no aptitude for the career; he [illegible]liked the ways and arts of politicians and pre[illegible]red his soldier friends and his reputation as a [illegible]dier to political associates or political fame. [illegible] knew, too, that he must lose some of his [illegible]pularity when he became a candidate; must [illegible]e up much of his ease and offend many of his [illegible]ends when once in office. Besides all this, [illegible] had tasted the bitterness of poverty, and he [illegible] now placed beyond pecuniary anxiety, [illegible]ile if he became president he must relinquish [illegible] income of $22,000 a year that was settled on [illegible]m for life. He had little to look forward to [illegible]erward, no resources to take the place of [illegible]at he would lose: and he was still young, [illegible]ly 43 when the war closed. He considered [illegible] these circumstances, and he has told me [illegible]ce that he looked with positive apprehension [illegible] the probability, which by degrees was con[illegible]rted into a certainty, of becoming a presiden[illegible]l candidate.

When he was first approached on the subject [illegible] resented the liberty and repelled all discus[illegible]on of the theme. I have often seen men who [illegible]ped to draw him out receive very mortifying [illegible] unexpected rebuffs. They would make per[illegible] an elaborate little speech, devise a snare [illegible] which they thought he must certainly fall, [illegible]ent a bait that must tempt him to talk, con[illegible]t a remark that made a reply unavoidable, [illegible] Grant would simply look at them with no [illegible]pression whatever on his face, and say not a [illegible]gle word. If he had uttered anything at all [illegible]y might have continued or renewed their [illegible], but this absolute silence was the most [illegible]barrassing answer possible. It not only em[illegible]ly baffled them, but was merciless in its way. [illegible]y stammered and blushed, no matter how [illegible] or adroit; then they attempted to change the [illegible]bject, and invariably before many minutes [illegible]ok their leave. Sometimes as the door closed [illegible]nt would look up at me with a quizzical ex[illegible]sion that showed he enjoyed their con[illegible]ion. For a man unused to the stratagems of [illegible] he was the most skilful and the most [illegible]ful in these repulses I have ever seen. His [illegible]terlocutors never returned to the charge.

FORCED INTO POLITICS.

But the course of Johnson made it incumbent [illegible] on the soldier to accept the political situ[illegible]on, however unwelcome. The people whom [illegible] had led in the war naturally looked to him to [illegible]rd what he had won, and for a year before [illegible] actual necessity for decision there could be [illegible] mistaking the signs. Still Grant lived in the [illegible]pe that the necessity might be averted. He [illegible]uld not admit to himself that he must take up [illegible] new role. The approach of the crisis [illegible]oke no ambition in him. Indeed, the specta[illegible] of Johnson dishonored, impeached, almost [illegible]osed, was not calculated to make one who [illegible]od so near it at all eager to become his suc[illegible]sor. The struggles whose inner history [illegible]nt knew so well, the troubles with cabinet [illegible]nisters, the distracting fears and anxieties of [illegible]hnson—perhaps the fate of Lincoln—all con[illegible]red to dispel the illusions which men further [illegible] might entertain. Grant saw for himself [illegible]at the lot of the president was a hard one; [illegible]d I do not believe he ever stated to any human [illegible]ing, or admitted to his own heart, before the [illegible]al rupture with Johnson, that he would ac[illegible]pt the nomination for the presidency.

This repugnance doubtless helped him to con[illegible]al so long his differences with the president, [illegible]d made him submit to more from Johnson [illegible]an he otherwise would have endured. Then, [illegible], Grant saw not a little in the conduct of [illegible]ngress and of individual members of the re[illegible]blican party that he did not commend. Of [illegible]urse, with the general policy of the party he [illegible]s in accord, but he disapproved many partic[illegible]ars and disliked many men that as a candidate [illegible] must in some sort indorse. Besides all this, [illegible] had many admirers and some warm personal [illegible]ends among the democrats, whom he was un[illegible]lling to lose, and the influence of his wife's [illegible]mily, which went for something, was decided[illegible] hostile to the republican party and sentiment. [illegible]us he deferred to the last moment taking the [illegible]cisive step.

But when he wrote the letter that defied the [illegible]sident he identified himself with the presi[illegible]nt's enemies. The country looked upon the [illegible]p as signifying his willingness to be consid[illegible]ed Johnson's antagonist. Johnson himself at [illegible] time and even afterward hoped to be the [illegible]minee of the democrats. He was at this mo[illegible]nt acting in unison with them: his only [illegible]ends were of their party; he was their repre[illegible]ntative and though he did many things that [illegible]ny democrats disapproved, they were forced [illegible] uphold him. Thus when Grant was thrust [illegible]to a position of personal and prominent hos[illegible]ity to Johnson, the republicans claimed him [illegible]d rallied around him. He knew himself that [illegible]e die was cast.

HE WAS NOMINATED BY ACCLAMATION

[illegible] Cincinnati in May, 1868. Stanton carried him [illegible]e news. I was with Grant at his own head[illegible]arters when the secretary of war entered the [illegible]om. I had never seen Stanton there before, [illegible] this time he did not send for Grant. He [illegible]me hurriedly up the stairs panting for breath [illegible] some one should precede him. He had re[illegible]ived the first telegram of the vote, even in ad[illegible]nce of Grant, and as he rushed in he ex[illegible]aimed: "General, I have come to tell you [illegible]at you have been nominated by the republican [illegible]rty for president of the United States." Grant [illegible]ceived the intelligence as he did every im[illegible]rtant announcement of his life. There was [illegible] shade of exultation or agitation in his face, [illegible] a flush on his cheek nor a flash in his eye. I [illegible]ubt whether he felt elated, even in those re[illegible]sses where he concealed his inmost thoughts. [illegible] that moment I believe he was sorry to [illegible]ve his position in the army, and dis[illegible]ed as much as ever the prospect of new re[illegible]ponsibilities and unfamiliar cares. But of [illegible]urse, when he was in a fight he desired to [illegible]n, and since his name had been placed before [illegible]e public with his tacit sanction, he would [illegible]ve been disappointed had he not received the [illegible]mination. Of that, however, there had hard[illegible] been a possibility. The next night he made [illegible] first political speech, in answer to Gov. [illegible]utwell, who publicly congratulated him on [illegible] nomination. The address was entirely un[illegible]pared, like almost every speech he ever [illegible]de, but I took it down at the time. It was in [illegible]ese words: "Gentlemen, being entirely unac[illegible]stomed to public speaking, and without the [illegible]sire to cultivate the power, it is impossible [illegible] me to find appropriate language to thank [illegible] for this demonstration. All that I can say [illegible] that to whatever position I may be called by [illegible]ur will, I shall endeavor to discharge its [illegible]ties with fidelity and honesty of purpose. Of [illegible] rectitude in the performance of public duties [illegible]u will have to judge for yourselves by the rec[illegible] before you."

With all his modesty Grant was conscious of [illegible] own character. He felt the weight of the [illegible]vices he had rendered, and dared to allude to [illegible]em without humility.

Indeed, he had been told so often that he was [illegible]dispensable at this crisis that he might be [illegible]rdoned if he believed it. He thought at any [illegible]te that he was as important to the republican [illegible]rty as the party was to him. He had not [illegible]nted the nomination and the party had not [illegible]nted the prestige of his name at the polls. [illegible]e was not grateful to the party, for he be[illegible]ved that if the party leaders could have done [illegible]thout him they never would have nominated [illegible]. And it is true that he was not the choice [illegible] the leaders, who doubted his political ability [illegible]d doubted even yet his political fidelity; he [illegible]s forced upon them by the rank and file. [illegible]nton, Chase, Greeley, Sumner—all would [illegible]e preferred a purely political man. Grant [illegible]ew this.
